

Activity 9

Question:

Which method runs faster for an array in reverse order, basic selection sort or basic insertion sort?

Solution:

Basic selection sort works faster in this case because there will be N exchanges in selection sort case. But in case of insertion sort, there will be $N^2/2$ exchanges which makes it slower.